One of the world's favorite ladies is waiting for you...

Day and night. Live.

Every day. Every night. From early afternoon to early morning, there's always live entertainment at the Fontainebleau Hilton.

If you feel like dancing the night away to the tunes of a hot top-forty beat, Poodles will be happy to oblige.

Or, if you'd rather talk while your foot taps, the Caribbean-themed entertainment Under the Trees is perfect for lunch.

Feel like a little late night music? Then try some soft piano in our Gallery Lounge. Or jazz that blows hot or cool, depending on where you look for it.

And if you'd rather just sit and gossip – more politely called people-watching – the Garden Lobby Bar is one of our perfect places to see and be seen.

Come on over and join the fun. Day and night, night and day, we make it come alive. And that's entertainment.

Your Hotel Superintendent Of Service

If you will oblige yourself and take two minutes to read this paragraph, it could be most beneficial and make your stay here in Miami Beach a most pleasant one.

Your hotel Superintendent is the "good will ambassador between you the guest and the management of the hotel." Therefore it is utmost important that we provide you the most beneficial and economical way for you to enjoy your vacation and see Miami Beach, plus the most interesting points in the nearby areas.

You will find your Superintendent of Service most qualified to pleasantly provide the aforementioned services in the most courteous manner to which he has become accustomed over the years spent in this profession.

Arthur conducts a symphony for your senses.

The walls are lined with the works of outstanding artists like Roualt, Calder, Stella, Warhol and the Reiback "Lumia Light Sculpture"

Joe's Stone Crab Restaurant was famous in Miami Beach before there was a Miami Beach

Two years before Miami Beach became a city, Joe Weiss set up what became Joe's Stone Crab Restaurant.

Over 67 years later, it's the place for stone crabs. Once you dip 'em in hot melted butter or mustard sauce and savor the taste, you'll know why Joe's isn't just a restaurant. It's an institution. And it's open Monday thru Friday for lunch and every day for dinner.

Welcome to Florida

You're in the land of sun and surf, sprawling beaches and spacious parks. Our nickname is The Sunshine State. Bob Graham is Governor and the capital is Tallahassee. Our highest point of land is 345 feet. Sea level is the lowest. The state flower is the Orange Blossom, the state bird is the Mockingbird and our state song is "Swanee River."

Maximum speed limit day or night is 55 mph on all moving vehicles. Please abide by this limit as it conserves on energy and saves lives. Ironically enough, the main traffic problem we have with tourists is that most tend to drive too slowly. Out of consideration to residents and fellow visitors alike, we would kindly ask you to move as fast as the speed limits allow. If you're not sure of directions, pull off the road and consult the maps in this magazine or ask someone for help. Do not idle down the roadway because this obstructs the flow of traffic and may result in an accident or a traffic violation.

Please don't underestimate the powerful ultra-violet rays of our subtropical sun. A nasty burn will spoil your vacation. Be careful. Consult the tanning guide in this magazine before you challenge Old Sol.

Enjoy your stay and thank you for selecting South Florida for your vacation.

Nick & Arthurs Features Extensive Menu

Elegance in dining at a price you can afford is the keynote at Hy Uchitel's Nick and Arthurs on the 79th St. Causeway.

From the extensive menu, prepared with care and perfection and served piping hot, great specialties like Yellowtail Almondine, Shrimp Sizzle, Veal Oscar and Prime Beef dishes are the talk of the town.

The kitchen is the heart of every great restaurant and Nick and Arthurs accepts only the finest in select produce, meats and fish. All fish and seafood are fresh caught and delivered daily. Produce is grade A select, and flown in regularly. The meats are specially selected and aged to perfection.

Seafood dishes are the true specialty of the house at Nick and Arthurs. Aside from their famous Stone Crabs (when in season) the Shrimp Sizzle is the most talked about. Broiled jumbo succulent shrimp generously stuffed with the chef's specially prepared seasoned crabmeat and served piping hot on a sizzling platter with plain or garlic butter is a gourmet's delight.

For those who prefer a meat dish, the veal Oscar is another house specialty. Lightly sauteed tender milk fed veal, topped with African lobster meat, with sauce bernaise, imported asparagus spears and served with noodles Alfredo.

To compliment these entrees Nick and Arthurs serves freshly baked breads, with sweet creamery butter, and a house salad that is such a conversation dish, with a dressing so delectable that Nick and Arthurs now package the dressing to go on special request.

The remembrance of this fine dining experience can be the famous Key Lime pie, this specialty is prepared on premises using all fresh Florida ingredients, or the Cheesecake which will satisfy any true Cheesecake lover.

Nick and Arthurs is conveniently located on the 79th St. Causeway, open daily for dinner from 5:30. For reservations, call 864-2200. Private dining rooms and catering facilities are also available for 20 to 200 people.

Hy Uchitel, owner of Place for Steak and Nick & Arthurs.

Carter & Chanel have returned to the Americana Hotel and will be appearing in the Emerald Lounge thru April 26th. Backed by guitars, drums, bass, keyboards and percussion, Carter & Chanel know how to handle the Emerald Lounge — using a big sophisticate sound. They are into rock, pop and show tunes on a non-stop basis Carter & Chanel can be seen nightly at 10:30 and 12:30 (except Sunday) with dancing from 9:00 p.m.

Swallowed up by pointed facts, this boy gasps inside the jaws of the largest shark that ever lived. Now on display at Miami's Planet Ocean, the jaws authentically depict the actual size of the prehistoric ancestor of the great white shark. Reconstructed from fossils taken around Jacksonville, the jaws show a half-grown shark. Full grown the shark would have been 40 feet long. Its jaws would have opened wide enough to accommodate a full-sized, fish-eating man.

Key Street Guide Miami and Miami Beach

Miami Beach is an island 7.2 square miles; it lies just 3 miles across Biscayne Bay from the mainland of the City of Miami. It is connected by six causeways from north to south at 163rd Street, 125th Street, 79th Street, 36th Street, 16th Street, 13th Street, Rickenbacker to Key Biscayne and Crandon Park. Numbering on Miami Beach starts at First Street at the south end of the beach. Getting around in Miami by automobile is not difficult, but mileage consuming. The street numbering systems begins at Miami Avenue and Flagler Street and is divided into quadrants from that point; for example, northeast, northwest, southeast, southwest. Streets run east and west as do the terraces. The avenues and places run north and south, but there are exceptions of these rules in the outlying areas, so use a map for such places as Hialeah. The system holds up to 215th Street on the north, 360th Street on the south and 217th Avenue on the west.

Easy Parking at Miami Beach Convention Center

Having trouble finding a parking place while attending events at the Miami Beach Convention Center/Theater of the Performing Arts?

Miami Beach's new Lincoln Lane West Garage, located between Washington Ave. & Lincoln Lane with a 1,500-car capacity, is probably one's best bet — if you have been having problems.

"The new Garage is within easy walking distance to the Convention Center and even closer to the Theater," explained Norman Litz, Convention Center director. "The garage is a completely enclosed facility and patrons do not have to waste time driving around looking for a space ... there's plenty of room."

KEY SHOPPING

Miami visitors are finding their stay here can be more than a sand and surf adventure.

In addition to the beautiful beaches and the many well-known and popular attractions in this area, travelers can take advantage of the excellent shopping while in Miami.

Few places in the world can equal Miami for its variety of goods and fine stores, and Miami has become one of the fashion centers of the world.

Figures show Miami houses the second largest fashion industry in the United States with more than 500 garment manufacturing plants. Because of this concentration of manufacturers, shoppers sometimes can buy "straight-from-the-factory" at wholesale and export prices.

However, if one prefers to shop at more conventional type stores, downtown Miami has it all — from the large chain department stores to the smaller specialty shops. There are more than 500 stores to choose from in the downtown area.

Evidence of downtown Miami's vitality is the new Omni project on Biscayne Boulevard. This large shopping complex is particularly attractive for Miami visitors, since it includes a hotel in addition to large department stores and many fine specialty shops.

Not far from downtown Miami, the famous Calle Ocho (Miami's Southwest Eighth Street) is becoming increasingly popular with Miami visitors as a place to shop "a la Latino."

A real Latin experience, Calle Ocho features countless specialty stores — many of which sell imported merchandise — as well as excellent restaurants and cafeterias serving Cuban,

Spanish, Basque and other Latin foods.

While shopping at Calle Ocho, visitors can stop at one of the many sidewalk counters for a sip of the strong, aromatic Cuban coffee.

The business district of Miracle Mile includes more than 140 shops on both sides of Coral Way, along the four blocks between Douglas Road and LeJeune Road in the city of Coral Gables. Miracle Mile has won fame from the excellent quality of their stores which offer all types of fine merchandise. See our two page map for exact location.

When it comes to shopping centers, Miami has them in all sizes, shapes and locations.

Across Biscayne Bay there are also fine shopping facilities. Lincoln Road Mall, in Miami Beach, has about 180 stores in eight blocks of beautifully decorated walkways with greenery, flower arrangements and water fountains. Known as the "International Market Plaza," the open-air mall is a great place to stroll, browse and shop. But if you prefer, there is an electric tram to take you from one end of the traffic-free mall to the other for just 15 cents.

Further north at 96th Street and Collins Avenue are the exclusive Bal Harbour Shops. This is a very special place to shop, stroll or dine amid verdant greenery, colorful flowers and fragrant orange trees. The 44 specialty shops include some of the world's finest and internationally known names. A "must" for visitors to south Florida.

The shops of Kane Concourse are located on the Miami Beach side of Broad Causeway, west of Collins Avenue on 96th Street. In an unhurried, elegant atmosphere, these stores offer a fine selection of men's and ladies' fashions and accessories. Original works of art and imported gift items are available. Continental luncheons and dinners top off a stroll on the European-style street.

Moving back to the mainland side of Biscayne Bay is the 163rd Street Shopping Center, Northeast 163rd Street between 12th and 15th Avenues. An open-air mall with 76 stores.

In Hialeah there is the sprawling Palm Springs Mile, West 49th Street (Miami's West 103rd Street) between Fourth and 12th Avenues. The mile-long shopping area has 165 stores, including a two-story mall with glass-enclosed elevator. A few blocks west, at West 49th Street next to the Palmetto Expressway, is the 93-store Westland Mall. Parking is ample and the air-conditioned Mall has a large variety of shops from department stores to specialty boutiques.

Traveling south along the Palmetto Expressway at the Flagler Street exit, Midway Mall's 80 stores are as easy to reach as they are to shop. The 54 acre air conditioned complex has parking for over 3,000 cars. Further south along the Palmetto Expressway one can find another enclosed type shopping center, the huge 70 acre, air conditioned shopping complex, Dadeland Mall, with 124 stores to serve your needs. This beautiful mall is the most complete shopping complex in all of Florida. The massive Dadeland Shopping Center is located at Kendall Drive and U.S. 1.

Miami Seaquarium — Make a Day of it

Vacationers and tourists who visit the famed Miami Seaquarium should plan it as an all day affair. In fact, a visit to the Seaquarium can be turned into an enjoyable family style picnic.

Rotating shows go on in six different areas of the Seaquarium so it gives the average vacationer plenty of time to relax in the shade of trees and gardens. Shaded picnic tables are all over the place. Many visitors come prepared to stay for the entire day — ticket booths open at 9 a.m. — bringing enough food for lunch and a mid-afternoon snack and enjoy the serenity of a park. It's not at all unusual to see a tourist grabbing 40 winks in the shade of a ficus tree. For the less ambitious, a cafeteria and a snack bar are easily accessible from all parts of the Seaquarium and vending machines for ice cream, soda and candy are conveniently placed throughout its 60 acres.

Without question, killer whale Lolita and the dolphins in the Top Deck and Flipper Lagoon are the crowd pleasers. But visitors also are enthralled by the divers who hand feed turtles and fish in the main Seaquarium reef tank while other personnel feed sharks in the circular channel. If nature's your thing, study life on the Lost Islands, a lush tropical spot that has been declared an official wild life sanctuary. The Lost Islands are the home of native birds, fish, turtles, a crocodile and iguanas. You can buy a handful of feed from a slot machine.

Inside the Seaquarium building are dozens of small tanks set into the walls, containing rare species of fish from all parts of the world. Each aquarium has a legend next to it thus making a visit an educational experience.

At the Flipper Lagoon, they've got a new trick for the winter season. Flipper and other dolphins already engage in a water ballet, play football, dance on their tails and do high belly roll dives. Now with the aid of a trainer the dolphins do the Roman Ride. Two dolphins speed around the Lagoon side by side carrying a standing up trainer who has one foot on each of the dolphins.

The Miami Seaquarium is four miles south from downtown Miami on Rickenbacker Causeway at Virginia Key (Key Biscayne area). Vacationers and tourists can get a bus that will take them to the Seaquarium's doorstep. The ticket booths open at 9:00 a.m. and close at 5:00 p.m. and the last show is on at 4:00 p.m. Grounds close at 6:30 p.m. Tickets for adults are $6.00 and $3.00 for children between the ages of 6 and 12. For kids under 6 with parents there's no charge.

Many tourists have discovered the nearby beaches that line both sides of the Rickenbacker Causeway that leads to the Seaquarium. There is plenty of room for parking and it's not at all unusual to see campers, trailers, and just plain autos parked at the water's edge, their occupants enjoying the calmness of Biscayne Bay and splashing around to their hearts content. Just like Flipper.

Custom Regulations

The U.S. Customs Service has increased duty-free allowances for travelers. The $100 exemption has been increased to $300.

U.S. residents returning from the U.S. Virgin Islands, American Samoa or Guam (called Insular Possessions) fare even better: the $200 duty-free limit on goods purchased at these destinations has been increased to $600.

No more complicated formulas to figure out customs charges. A flat rate of 10 per cent will be assessed on the first $600 worth of purchases exceeding the new $300 duty-free limit. U.S. citizens returning from the Insular Possessions will pay five per cent duty on the first $600 in goods exceeding their $600 limit.

If Purchases exceed the $900 or $1,200 ceiling additional duty will have to be calculated by customs officials.

Although there is no limitation in terms of total amount, if you transport or cause to be transported (including by mail or other means), more than $5,000 in monetary instruments on any occasion into or out of the United States, or if you receive more than that amount, you must file a report (IRS Form 4790) with U.S. Customs.

Monetary instruments include U.S. or foreign coin, currency, travelers checks, money orders, and negotiable instruments or investment securities in bearer form.

Goods shipped from the Insular Possessions will still apply on the duty-free allowance. The $10 limit on unsolicited gifts mailed from abroad has been increased to $25 duty-free.

Restrictions on cigarettes have changed. You're now allowed only one carton of cigarettes (200 cigarettes) instead of "any reasonable amount for personal consumption." Liquor is still restricted to one quart (one gallon from the Insular Possessions) duty-free. However, when we adopt the metric system in 1980 that'll change to a liter (an ounce and a half more). Non-residents will also be restricted to bring back only one carton of cigarettes and one quart of liquor duty-free.

Trademarked items are no longer necessarily taboo. Before, certain articles — such as brand name cameras and perfumes — could not be brought back without permission by the trademark owner. Now at least one trademarked purchase can be brought back to the U.S.

A "bird's eye" view of the Miami Beach Convention Center shows that the huge complex is only a "stone's throw" away from major hotels and the Atlantic Ocean. Nearby is Lincoln Mall, one of the Beach's major shopping centers, and to the right of the Convention Center is the Theatre of Performing Arts. Ample parking and being in the hub of activity proves why major conventions are held on Miami Beach.
